

ISAAC "IKE" CAMACHO

Former Prisoner of War

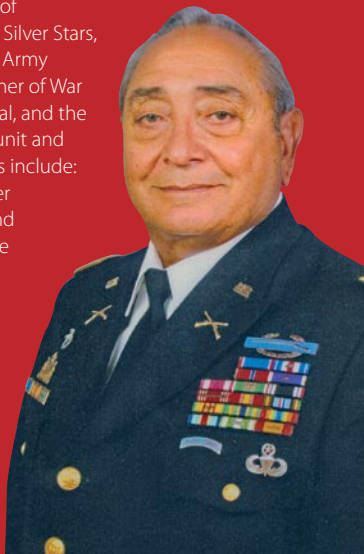

In 1963, serving as a Weapons Leader for a Special Forces "A" Team, Isaac was captured in the Republic of Vietnam. During the battle his Commanding Officer was wounded and gave Isaac the order to retreat. Under intense enemy fire he escorted his commanding officer to safety. Isaac returned to the camp to help his other team members but discovered the camp under enemy control. Isaac continued to fight. With his carbine and hand grenades he took out an enemy machine-gun crew and other enemy soldiers until he was captured.

He was held captive for twenty-two months in the jungles of Cambodia - shackled with chains on his ankles. In July of 1965 his chains were temporarily removed to be used on another prisoner providing hope for his plan to escape. He became the first serviceman to successfully escape a prisoner of war camp during the Vietnam conflict.

*In the words of U.S. President Lyndon .B. Johnson:
"Your courage and daring determination have inspired all America. So long as this country and the free world can call on men like Isaac Camacho, we need never fear the loss of our liberties."*

Captain Camacho is the recipient of the Distinguished Service Cross, 2 Silver Stars, the Bronze Star, 2 Purple Hearts, 3 Army Commendation Medals, the Prisoner of War Medal, the Army Meritorious Medal, and the Good Conduct Medal plus other unit and campaign decorations. His Badges include: the Combat Infantry Badge, Master Parachutist Badge, Vietnamese and Chinese Parachutist Badge and the Vietnamese Ranger Badge.

Isaac attended Thomas Jefferson High School, graduating in 1955. He is retired as Station Manager from the U.S. Postal Service. He and his wife Gracie have 3 sons - 2 have chosen to serve our country as career soldiers.
